S~

I did send talking points to Beth on general politically correct issues for this conference. I don't know if you are speaking or mingling, but I do know the AML will have one major issue to push and that is the methodology of Revenue Sharing.

AML is tickled pink at your proposed 75M (as they should be, the most is in several years; 50% more than last year.)

AML doesn't like that Revenue Sharing is in the Capital budget. I have met with Kathy Waserman (their CEO) and their lobbyist (I don't remember his name) and here is how I understand their position:

AML thinks Capital budget appropriations are a method (introduced by Murkowski) that is too vulnerable to the political wind (a fear realized with Murkowski.) They support a statute, specifically SB72 with some amendments.

And they think the Capital budget method doesn't allow for predictability and forward budget planning.

So, there you have it. The methodology of our Administration is what you will be asked about more than anything else, so heads up. You probably already know, but I wanted to make sure.

What's regional dinner? No need to travel to dc if it's just a ceremonial brkfst to hear prez speak. I'll be there at end of month. Did AGIA team want to tie anything into either dc trip?
